

Storyland

Science

"Amazing Me!"

- How the body changes
- Body patterns
- Senses
- Healthy eating

Topic (History)

"Changes Within Living Memory"

- This is what we do!
- What did our parents do?
- PEEPO!
- Old books and toys
- Class book and toy museum

Art

"The Day the Crayons Quit"

- 'Mondrian': Primary colours
- Mixing colours
- Light and dark
- 'Kandinsky' Circles

Local Stimuli

- Work with local Story Teller:
<http://www.iandouglas-storyteller.co.uk/>
- Visit Fairy Doors:
<http://www.cumwhitton.com/fairy-walk-in-greenwell/>
- Tatty Bumpkin Sessions

Maths

- Addition & subtraction
- Place value
- Money
- Measuring

Using methods of Maths Mastery

Literacy

Traditional Fairy Stories

- Fiction (Stories in familiar settings: character & structure)
- Compare traditional stories to contemporary versions
- Non-fiction (labels & lists)
- S&L: Pronunciation and turn taking

Remaining subjects covered by other members of staff

Topic (History)

"Fire! Fire!"

- Events of the Great Fire of London
- Evidence: How to work with historic recounts
- Why did the fire spread so quickly?
- Samuel Pepys and his diary
- Fire safety then and now

Science

"Materials"

- Material hunt
- Natural or man-made?
- Changing shape
- Metal and plastic
- Wood and paper
- Inventors of man-made materials

Remaining subjects covered by other members of staff

People Who Help Us

Maths

- Addition & subtraction
- Doubles & halves
- Multiplication
- Shape
- Data handling

Using methods of Maths Mastery

Literacy

Poems and literature based on The Great Fire of London & People Who Help Us

- Poetry
- Letter writing (giving and requesting information)
- Newspaper reports
- S&L: Play scripts

Art

"London's Burning"

- Design and build model house (1666)

"Christmas Crafts"

- Design and make a Christmas decoration

Local Stimuli

- Visit local fire station
- Construct scale model of The Great Fire of London to burn
- Invite parents in to talk about their jobs
- Visit local Mountain Rescue
- Police dog handlers to visit school